

Multicultural WOMEN'S Sewing Project

Multicultural Women's Sewing Project will assist in developing opportunities for multicultural and indigenous women with sewing skills and talents to develop their own sewing business through a series of information sessions and small business development workshops. Opportunities will also be available for participants to gain employment, register for a mentor, participate in fashion parades and/or develop linkages with TCF Global fashion networks and register in a Multicultural Women's Sewing Directory to gain ongoing new business opportunities.

Multicultural Women's Sewing Project is funded through the Western Australian Grants for Women Program 2007 from the Office for Women's Policy, Textile Clothing Footwear Resource Centre of WA Inc (TCFWA), Belmont BEC (BEC) – Small Business Centre Belmont (SBC), designedge fashion Incubator, The Australian Asian Association of WA Inc.(AAA), City of Belmont, Belmont Business & Professional Women (BPW), Australia Post, PMS Marketing, sponsors, supporters & volunteers.
