Julie Mullet from ED Connect said, "Ed Connect Australia enhances wellbeing and enriches lives and communities by enabling people of all ages to help each other. We connect volunteers who want to make a difference, with young people in school who need extra help. They harness the wisdom and skills of older generations to enrich the learning experience of young people who are at risk of falling by the wayside in an often over-burdened school system."

Gemma Hunter from Perth Airport said, "As the gateway to Western Australia, and with an exciting phase of redevelopment well underway, Perth Airport's own Gold Coat Volunteer Program is vital to ensure that passengers and visitors to the airport are provided with information and assistance within the international and domestic terminals. The airport recognises the invaluable contribution that volunteers like the Gold Coats make to the community, and would like to congratulate the winner of the Volunteer of the Year Award and all entrants in this category. Congratulations to Julie and ED Connect Australia team."
