Belmont women given forum on special day

INSPIRATIONAL women will share their stories, skills and talents next month in Belmont as part of International Women's Day.

An event co-ordinated by the Belmont Business Enterprise Centre, Belmont Business and Professional Women (BPW), Textile Clothing Footwear Resource Centre of WA and the City of Belmont will be held on March 8 and women are invited to take part.

Guest speakers will include the BPW Business Woman of the Year, Joan DellaValle from Ebony & Ivory, who specialises in multicultural hair and beauty services.

Ms DellaValle will showcase her first fashion collection - Giovanna DellaValle - on the day.

Inspiring stories will also be shared from the women of Jacaranda Community Centre and BPW state president Jasmyn Mumme will update those present on the 2012 inductees into the WA Women's Hall of Fame.

Carol Hanlon, event organiser and chief executive of the Belmont Business Enterprise Centre, said International Women's Day was an important event in the community.

Tickets are $25 per head, and include a light lunch and refreshments. The event will be held at the City of Belmont Civic Centre from noon to 2pm.
