Meet our Speakers

Susan Langdon - Toronto Fashion Incubator

Susan Langdon will address the conference on Selling to Canada: DIY or Hiring an Agent and also on the Past, Present & Future of TFI. TFI is an award-winning, non-profit organization that provides critical support, resources and workspace to new and emerging fashion entrepreneurs. Developed in 1987 by the City of Toronto, TFI is the world's first official fashion incubator and the longest-running centre of its kind.

Conference attendees will discover the TFI story from humble beginning and growing pains, to lessons learned, present day successes and challenges, and future strategies. This presentation will encourage attendees to engage in conversational dialogue and idea-sharing, with a focus on future growth opportunities for all fashion incubators.

Susan Langdon is a native Torontonian, former fashion designer and graduate of Ryerson University in Toronto, Canada. Throughout her 30+ years in the fashion industry, she has received many honours and awards including the City of Toronto's Industry Achievement Award and being inducted into Ryerson's Alumni Hall of Fame. As executive director and CEO of the Toronto Fashion Incubator, Susan is responsible for the centre's finances and operations. She has been with the organization for almost 18 years.
