Belmont Business Enterprise Centre Announces New Chairperson

Jules Lewin, Director of Charthill Legal has just been elected to the role of Chair Belmont Business Enterprise Centre (Belmont BEC), as Cassie Rowe is stepping down as Belmont BEC Chair with her 2nd baby due in July.

Belmont Business Enterprise Centre Inc. (Belmont BEC) is a non-profit community based organisation established, which was established in May of 1994, and celebrates 21 years of service this year. The Belmont BEC offers 'one stop shop, low-cost advisory services' and provides small business support with a helpline, mentoring, networking, legal and accounting support and a range of other services. The Belmont BEC not only services small business owners in Belmont and Western Australia, but is able to deliver its services across Australia and beyond via its innovative online training webinars and mentoring.

Jules Lewin gained his legal experience practising in Johannesburg, in his native South Africa. Migrating to Perth in 2003, Jules re-qualified as an Australian lawyer in 2004. Charthill Legal, a company offering a wealth of experience based on over thirty years legal experience, in property and business sales transactions and assisting small business with general legal advice and agreements. Jules' mantra for Charthill Legal is to provide relevant advice to clients on issues and outcomes based on sound practical advice and he derives immense pride and pleasure from helping people resolve legal matters, regardless of their financial situation.

Carol Hanlon, CEO of Belmont BEC said, "I would like to formally congratulate Jules Lewin on his appointment to Chair of the Belmont BEC Committee. On behalf of all the TCFWA Committee, and Staff, I would like to sincerely thank Jules for his great contribution over the past years as Chair of TCFWA and we are all glad he will remain on the TCF Committee".
