Belmont Business Enterprise Centre (BEC) in conjunction with the Western Australian division of Australian Federation of Business & Professional Women (BPW) has developed a specialist business improvement program to provide online support to women owner and managers in small businesses across Australia. WA State Manager of AusIndustry, Ms Dianne May, officially launched the program on Wednesday, 17 April.

The BPW Business Incubator Project provides online training and mentoring to develop the business skills and business growth potential of women in new or existing home based, micro small businesses. Workshops will be on offer in areas such as Business Planning, Financial Management, Marketing, International Trade Opportunities and eCommerce.

To register for the program or to receive more information visit www.belmontbec.com/bpwbiform or visit www.bpwbusinessincubator.com or call 9479 3777.
