OCD Brilliance is an organisation that has adapted its business model for their 14 staff members, all of whom have a different disability.

Winner of the Corporate Social Responsibility Award, Barbara Hartley from OCD Brilliance said, "We have a real passion for cleaning, helping others and a commitment to quality customer service. The health and wellbeing of our customers, staff and our environment is our number 1 priority! That is why we use only the most experienced cleaners and only use the highest quality, eco-friendly cleaning products. We invest in ongoing training and support to our staff to ensure they perform at our high standard of cleaning and customer care at all times."

The Corporate Social Responsibility Award is supported by the MY Business Incubator - Count Me IN Project. Hannah Beazley, Previous Board Member, said, "We are thrilled to support the Corporate Social Responsibility Award. The MY Business Incubator 'Count Me IN' Project has over 2,000 business participants across Belmont & Perth Metropolitan region. The project includes FREE Webinars, Workshops, Forums and Helpline Mentors to assist in 'Breaking Down the Barriers' and provide employers information on considering disability employment.

Carol Hanlon, Founder of Belmont BEC and the Belmont & WA Small Business Awards said, "The awards provide a fantastic opportunity for small and growing enterprises from Belmont and across Western Australia to be recognised for their achievements."

Ms Hanlon said, "This is the 27th year we have held our Small Business Awards and it is exciting to see the awards grow each year to provide recognition to those in Western Australia striving for business excellence and acknowledging community achievements. We sincerely thank the valuable support from our Category Sponsors which make this amazing small business event possible. In particular to the City of Belmont for their long-term support”.
