Strategic predictions for 2025 and beyond: Riding the AI whirlwind

AI is no longer just a trend – it's a force of transformation, intertwining with other innovations to reshape business strategies, operations, and entire industries. Last year, organisations focused on becoming AI-ready, building literacy, and identifying key use cases. Now, the challenge is to go beyond readiness and become AI-advanced. The Gartner® report¹, Gartner's Top Strategic Predictions for 2025 and Beyond: Riding the AI Whirlwind, explores how AI will impact privacy, management structures, and the way businesses operate. Calling all fashion models ... now AI is coming for you

As fashion brands create AI 'twins' with models' permission, some believe this is just another form of exploitation.

The impact of AI has been felt across industries from Hollywood to publishing – and now it's come for modelling. H&M announced last week that it would create AI "twins" of 30 models with the intention of using them in social media posts and marketing imagery if the model gives her permission. Learn more.

Why side hustles are a bad idea

Despite the obvious appeal of side hustles — more money! — they're not for everyone. If your side hustle makes you stress out, neglect relationships, or miss opportunities at your day job, then consider it a bad idea. Side hustles are only beneficial when they help you accomplish goals without sacrificing what matters most. Read on to find out how to evaluate your options and goals before taking on a side hustle — here.
